

The hope of the foreign manufacturer lies in the democratic party.

The hope of the American manufacturer lies in the republican party.

The English manufacturer is contributing to the democratic campaign fund.

The main issue is to beat the democratic party and thus confer a blessing upon the people of this country.

On the dome of the sky last Tuesday night will be the words in letters of living light, "republican victory!"

Out of the 700 men employed in the North Chicago rolling mills, 683 will vote for Blaine and Logan. How does this strike the democrats?

Just one voter is eighty in Ohio, and it is hoped that he will vote by casting it for the prohibition ticket. It is hoped that in Wisconsin there would be found not even one in eighty who wants to make so poor use of his ballot.

Only three years ago Mr. Beecher said in a speech that $1 a day was enough for any workman and he ought to support his wife and five children on that amount. Mr. Beecher, in supporting Cleveland and free trade, is simply carrying out that idea that workmen have no rights that other men are bound to respect.

Some of the ministers at Indianapolis have resolved that they would vote this year as they prayed in 1861—for the Union. To vote for Cleveland or St. John is simply for the old power that defended slavery, and that wanted slavery to be national and freedom only local. The ministers of Indianapolis are sound on the national issues.

On Wednesday evening last Carl Schurz delivered his tirade against Mr. Blaine in Boston, and on Thursday the Journal of that city received a score of letters from men who had been hesitating as to their duty and had gone to hear Mr. Schurz before deciding how to vote. Every one of them expressed a determination to support Mr. Blaine. If the campaign were not so far advanced, it would have been well for the republican managers to enter into a competition with the democrats for Mr. Schurz's services.

The constant effort of Mr. Beecher is to lie about the republican party. For instance the other day in a speech he said the tariff is nothing but a scheme of taxation that rolls $400,000,000 a year in to the treasuries at Washington." Is Mr. Beecher so ignorant about what he is talking of as not to know that the total duty collected by the tariff last year was $190,282,886, and that the annual revenue from tariff has rarely or ever been half the sum he mentioned? Even if Mr. Beecher is a democrat, that should not give him the liberty of peddling falsehoods with impunity.

FORGERY TO THE FRONT.

It could hardly be expected that the present campaign could close without some forgery from the democratic bureau of defamation. In New England, the democratic national committee has caused to be circulated what purports to be an extract from the columns of the Kennebec Journal, tending to show that Blaine in 1856, when the editor of the Journal, supported the know-nothing presidential ticket. There the democratic newspapers are furnished with this plate:

THE KENNEBEC JOURNAL.
AUGUSTA, MAINE, AUGUST 12, 1856.
JAN. G. BLAINE & JAS. BAXTER, Editors.

THE AMERICAN TICKET.
FOR PRESIDENT,
MILLARD FILLMORE,
OF New York.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
ANDREW J. DONALDSON
OF Tennessee.

"Put None But Americans on Guard."

It is said that this forgery has not only been largely circulated in the east but that the democratic managers have sent the plates of the bogus ticket to Wisconsin, and several democratic papers here have printed it.

When the forgery appeared the proprietors of the Journal promptly sent telegrams over the country branding the lie, and saying that during the entire campaign of that year, the following ticket was displayed at the head of the editorial columns of Mr. Blaine's paper:

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.
FOR PRESIDENT,
JOHN C. FLEMING
OF California.
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM L. DAYTON,
OF New Jersey.

Mr. Blaine was a delegate to the republican national convention of 1860 and was one of the secretaries of the convention. A further examination shows that the republican ticket instead of that place and without any motto and no such man as James Baxter ever had anything to do with the newspaper with which Mr. Blaine was associated.

CLEVELAND'S TRUE CHARACTER.

A little over a year ago, the New York Times, which now slanders Blaine and lauds Cleveland to the skies, did not suppose that the ex-sheriff would be a candidate for the presidency. His "reform" administration as governor was such a travesty on justice and statesmanship that the New York Times thus described the man Cleveland:

Grave Cleveland is a political blind man;
A man of desperate hardihood;
A man authorizing a great public robbery;
A man yielding to political pressure;

A man commending himself to the public distrust;

A man willing to swindle the state's creditors;

A man playing cheap and scummy tricks;

A very low-priced reformer;

A man backing an infamous political job for the enrichment of a political gang;

A man of humbug political pretensions;

A man making nominations for considerations purely political;

A profligate presidential candidate;

A perceptive statesman.

But this was not only the opinion of the Times, but every independent paper in New York expressed the same opinion of Cleveland as governor. There is not a democrat in New York who pretends to call the charges of the Times an untruthful statement.

FOR THE ASSEMBLY, PLINY NORCROSS.

The republican convention of the Second assembly district, nominated the Hon. Pliny Norcross this afternoon. This nomination will be received with the warmest approval by the republicans of this district. Mr. Norcross is not only a representative business man, but he has been one of the leading members of the Rock county bar for many years. So far as fitness for the position of assemblyman is concerned, there is no man in the district who is his superior. He had the honor of serving in the legislature in 1867, and did so with credit to himself and honor to his constituents. He is one of these practical, vigorous, enterprising men who are a boon to any city; and more than that he is a man of pronounced ability, is thoroughly acquainted with every department of the state government—a man of unimpaired integrity, a bright example of industry, manly sense, and broad intelligence will do for a young man when he starts out to win success.

Then, again, there is something that entitles Mr. Norcross to the unbounded respect of the people of Janesville. He is one of the most enterprising business men in the city. There is hardly a manufacturing enterprise in Janesville that has not received encouragement and substantial aid from him. He has been thoroughly identified with the establishment of the industries of the city in the past ten or twelve years. He has not only given them encouragement in word, but has contributed his money freely for their support; and during the past season he has erected blocks of buildings which are not only an ornament to the city but an important contribution to the city's business prosperity. Thus it will be seen that as a public-spirited man, who labors for the advancement of the manufacturing interests of the city, and for the welfare of the working people, he stands shoulder to shoulder with the most progressive and liberal in Janesville.

Mr. Norcross should be elected, and we have the assurance that he will be triumphantly elected. He will rank with the ablest men in the legislature, and will be an honor to the district which showed wisdom in giving him the nomination.

CONSERVATIVE ESTIMATES AS TO HOW NEW YORK WILL GO.

The great battle-field in this campaign for the next four or five days is New York. It is an important battle to both parties. The democrats can not possibly win without it. With New York against them, they are hopelessly defeated. The republicans can elect Blaine without New York, provided they carry Connecticut, Indiana and Nevada. In fact it is reasonably certain that Blaine will carry these three states, which will elect him though New York should cast its vote for Cleveland.

Now for the indications in New York. The democrats are claiming the state by pluralities ranging all the way from 25,000 to 50,000, and the republican managers are satisfied that Blaine will carry the state by pluralities ranging from 20,000 to 40,000.

The state has been thoroughly canvassed. Every county has been worked. There has been no disposition to brag about the strength of the republican candidates in any part of the state, neither has there been a desire to belittle the Irish-American vote for Blaine and Logan. The time for bragging has passed, now let us see what the facts are when they appear in cold ink, or near as can be ascertained after an unprejudiced survey of the political field.

In 1883, Garfield carried the state of New York by 21,033. There were 46 counties that gave him a majority of 52-516, and 13 counties which gave Hancock a majority of 61,853. New York county then gave Hancock 41,255, and Kings county, in which Brooklyn is situated, gave 9,311. After a thorough canvass has been made of all the counties, conservative estimates are then made of what the result will be, and in the 46 republican counties Blaine's plurality is set down at 74,553, and in the 13 democratic counties Cleveland's plurality is given at 45,593, making Blaine's plurality in the state, 28,960. In this estimate New York county is placed at 30,030 plurality for Cleveland, and Kings county at 8,000.

Now the question is, are these estimates reliable? The editor of the Gazette does not assume to say whether they are or not. Experts and old politicians who live in New York consider these estimates of pluralities very moderate and conservative; and go so far as to say that Blaine's pluralities will actually be increased 10,000 above those already given. The democratic managers do not place Cleveland's plurality in Kings county at more than 7,000 and Kelly, and many other democrats who are experts in political guessing as past campaigns will show, declare that

New York county will not give Cleveland more than 80,000 plurality.

It is a fact, which may as well be stated, that the independent vote is an upstart in this campaign. It is somewhat in New York city and vicinity, but in the country towns where the people are plain, honest, hardworking, and are never troubled with political dyspepsia, there is nothing of it. From these comparisons and estimates which are made under circumstances far removed from political enthusiasm or partisan zeal, it would seem that Blaine and Logan will carry New York.

THE OHIO SCOTT LAW.

Declared Null and Void by the State Supreme Court.

What Its Provisions Were—The Court's Decision—Its Effect on the Municipalities and on the Political Parties.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 29.—The supreme court—three judges affirming and two dissenting—Tuesday declared the Scott liquor law unconstitutional. The decision on the several pending cases were all to this effect. The law was passed April 17, 1883. It provided that the license for selling intoxicating liquors be assessed $500 for each place where liquor was sold, but where multiple licenses were exclusively sold the assessment was only $100. The assessment was on the premises, and the penalty for selling without the written consent of the owner of the premises was a fine not exceeding $500 or ten days' imprisonment, or both. If any saloonkeeper refused to give necessary information to the canvassers he was liable to an assessment of $375, and if any person claiming to sell only malt and various liquors sold any other kind the assessment was fixed at $500. Any assessment not paid within due time had a penalty of 20 per cent. added. The revenues thus made were collected by the county treasurer, and one-third of the proceeds were paid by the county auditor into the treasury of the county or town where the liquor business was carried on. Half of this three-fourths was placed to the credit of the police fund, and half to the general revenue fund. The other fourth was placed to the credit of the poor fund of the county. By this law it was made unlawful to sell liquor upon Sunday, and a penalty of $100 fine and thirty days' imprisonment was fixed therefor.

The court held that the law, "so far as it provides for a lien on real estate occupied by a tenant who is a dealer in liquors, is, in the eighth section of the schedule to the constitution, which provides that no license to traffic in intoxicating liquors shall hereafter be granted in this state, and is, therefore, void." And that "inasmuch as it is clearly unreasonable and impracticable for the general assembly to have passed the Scott law with the provision giving a lien for the tax on the premises occupied by the dealer in liquor, the whole act, so far as it provides for an assessment or tax, is unconstitutional and void." The decision of the court, stripped of its verbiage, declares the entire law unconstitutional, and will not only do away with the collection of the tax this year, only a small portion of which has been paid, but will make it necessary for all corporations to pay back the amount which was collected under the law last year, together with interest. It will bankrupt nearly all the cities in the state, as far as the law goes, and will make the supposition that the law was constitutional and would bring into the treasury of the counties and cities a stipulated amount of money. In Columbus, for example, between $15,000 and $30,000 were paid from the tax last year, and now the amount has been paid this year. The consequence is that the departments are belated in the payment of salaries; two and three months. Other cities of the state are similarly situated. The result is a question with the municipal and county authorities as how they will secure immediate relief from the embarrassing situation, the legislature not being in session to grant authority.

The decision was rendered by three Democratic judges, two Republican judges dissenting. It is not thought that the decision will affect the November election greatly, as the liquor men who may go to the Democratic will be offset by Democratic taxpayers not in the liquor business. CINCINNATI, Oct. 29.—The announcement in Cincinnati that the Scott law had been declared unconstitutional created considerable interest and excitement. Thomas McDougall, attorney for Hamilton county in the Scott law suits, said: "Politically it must prove disastrous to the Democratic party. The decision reaches the masses of the people everywhere, who are by it compelled to pay over again their taxes. There are now more warmly in favor of the law than the Germans since the effect of the law has been experienced. It is an unfortunate decision for everybody, but I do not propose to criticize it at this time. It has been made by our highest court of record, whose decisions we are bound to respect."

Gen. Michael Ryan (Democrat) said: "I never thought the law constitutional. I never believed it was so. I believe not, and I believe that the liquor business should be taxed. Now let us have a constitutional amendment to that effect."

Gen. Hickenlooper (Republican) said: "This means an increase of the Republican vote and an increase of taxation, compelling every citizen to pay more for the same thing. It will give the state to the Republicans for ten years," said John A. Shank, a Democrat, who thinks the law a just one.

Railway Directors Elected.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 29.—The Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis & Chicago railroad stockholders Tuesday elected the following directors, without opposition: George Foster, Samuel J. Bradford, George Wilshire, M. E. Jagers, B. F. Evans, Lutz Anderson, Henry Lewis (vice C. W. West, deceased), George Bliss, C. P. Huntington, Joseph S. Fay (of Boston), R. R. Cable, Thomas Morris, and Allan M. Fletcher (vice T. T. Sharpe). The last two of Indianapolis. No dividend was declared, the 1-per-cent. surplus having been applied for improvement.

The directors re-elected M. Ingalls president, and C. E. Osborn secretary and treasurer.

Colorado Colliers on the Strike.

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 29.—The coal miners' strike is fairly inaugurated, and includes about all of the bituminous mines in the state. The strike includes mines at Mitchell, Canfield and other points north of here, upon which the city is largely dependent for coal, and the Trinidad mines and those in the San Juan region, including 5,000 miners, all members of the Order of Labor. Their grievances are of various character, and their delegates are now endeavoring to formulate a general complaint.

The Spanish-American Commercial Treaty.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The Daily News Madrid dispatch states that serious obstacles have arisen in the negotiations for a commercial treaty between Spain and the United States. Spain contends that she can not grant special concessions for trade with her colonies, and the United States will therefore refuse to repeal the duties on imports from those colonies.

AT THE METROPOLIS AGAIN.

Mr. Blaine Closes His Tour of Leading Cities of New York State.

New York, Oct. 29.—At 7:30 Tuesday evening Mr. Blaine's arrival in this city brought to an end his tour of the leading cities of New York state. Between Blaine and this city a number of stops were made, and at each place there were cheering crowds assembled to greet the Republican leader. At Susquehanna there were 5,000 people and a little 16 girl presented Mr. Blaine with a bouquet, whereupon he picked her up and kissed her.

Blaine was reached at 9 p. m., and there not less than 20,000 people had assembled, and were so tumultuous and eager in their welcome to their visitors that Mr. Blaine, who had intended to make a protracted stay, found it impossible to hear his own voice. Considerable time elapsed before Hon. William Walter Phelps secured silence, when Mr. Blaine called the attention of his hearers to the subject of looking after the election of their representatives.

Among the amusing occurrences of the trip, was the confusion that resulted from an extraordinary rumormongering between Mr. Blaine and Senator Lyons, of St. Lawrence county, who was called by the Republican leader whoever he showed his face. At Elmira the people were so confident that he was Mr. Blaine that in their enthusiasm the senator was taken to the hotel in a carriage drawn by several hundred men.

Mr. Blaine arrived at Jersey City shortly after 7 o'clock. He was accompanied by his son, Walter, Postmaster Manly, of Arkansas, and Senator Warner Miller. They were met at the depot by Messrs. Warren and Harper of the Republican state committee, and J. O'Brien and Barnaby Biglow. The party entered carriages and crossed to this city by the Pavonia ferry, arriving at the Fifth Avenue hotel at 7:30. He found awaiting him Mrs. Blaine, Mr. Blaine, Miss Blaine, and Miss M. A. Dodge (Miss Hamilton). During the evening the president of the Irish American Independents called to escort him to the meeting at Chickering hall. Mr. Blaine begged to be excused on the ground that he was exhausted, but Mr. Walker Blaine proceeded to the hall to explain his absence. At Chickering hall there was a large crowd, and Walker Blaine and Senator Hall, of Maine, entered the hall at 8:30. Mr. Williams, of Brooklyn, concluded a speech on the tariff, and was enthusiastically cheered. The former briefly excused his father's absence on account of fatigue, and the latter made a few remarks on the protection of American labor, when the meeting adjourned.

AN EXCITED GATEMAN.

He Causes the Death of One Man and Probable Death of Another.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 28.—About 5:30 Tuesday evening two gentlemen, named Richard Farley and John Elliott, attempted to drive a team and wagon across the tracks of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago railway at Wood's Run (a city suburb) crossing, ahead of an approaching express train. The train, consisting of a passenger car, a safety gate, a baggage car, and a locomotive, was just passing the crossing, and the team was thrown violently on the track and both men fell out. The engine struck both men, killing one instantly, throwing the other into the creek, striking him on the head, and he died in a few moments. Farley, a bystander, with terrific force, pushing him so severely that he died in a few moments. Farley was a candidate for mayor of Allegheny before the last election.

Gladiator Endorses Spencer.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—In the house of commons Tuesday night the motion of Mr. Harrington for no inquiry into the conduct of the Manchester murder trial was rejected by a vote of 215 to 43. In the debate preceding the vote, Mr. Gladstone spoke against the motion, and took occasion to eulogize the late Sir Samuel Woodley, and to praise the conduct of the Manchester murder trial.

Hospitality Heaped with Murder.

THOY, Ind., Oct. 28.—Monday night Mrs. George Foster was in her home, about ten miles from this place, when a man passing along the road stopped in and asked to stay all night. About 10 o'clock Mrs. Foster's house was set on fire. It was reported that the man who had been murdered, was found with marks which plainly showed that he had been murdered. The whole neighborhood is excited and a large crowd is gathering in the city in search of the man. They will make short work of him if found.

Idaho Territory, 1885.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 29.—W. M. Bunn, governor of Idaho, in his annual report to the secretary of the interior, states that the funded debt of the territory is but $20,263, and that the population is 80,000. He proposes to secure Idaho's admission into the Union as a state. The assessed property of the territory is $2,338,000—an increase of 50 per cent. over last year. The principal industry of the territory is mining. The output of minerals during the past year is estimated to have amounted to about $7,000,000. The governor says that Mormons are coming into Idaho from Utah in great numbers.

Irving Hall and County Democracy.

New York, Oct. 29.—The New York county Democracy and Irving Hall hold a mass-meeting at the Academy of Music Tuesday night to ratify the Democratic national convention nomination. Wallace, of Pennsylvania, resolutions were adopted in favor of the Democratic national and county tickets.

Of these arrested 450 were convicted and eighty-eight acquitted. The amount of fines and penalties collected aggregated $29,327.

Fairfield.

—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wetmore were the recipients of a complete and pleasant surprise on Friday evening of last week, when the relatives and friends to the number of about forty gathered in on them a body for round them the "matrimonial traces" for one year, and that it was the anniversary night of their marriage. Representatives were present from Putnam, Milton, and Johnson towns, and support, music and social conversation was the order. This evening, however, the happy couple by some of their relatives and friends present, which, for the lack of a complete list, we fail to particularize in this item. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all present, and much credit is due to Mr. B. D. Watson and Mr. John Watson for the complete success of the marriage.

—The farmers in this vicinity are now exerting their muscles in the corn fields. Corn is an excellent crop this year all through this section.

A fire of considerable violence struck this village about eight o'clock last Friday evening, no material damage was done to lives or property so far as yet reported.

—The farmers through this section are fast arriving to the conclusion that it is almost a foregone conclusion that the harvest of from fifty cents to a dollar a hundred margin for shipping their stock as is shown by the fact that a good many of them if they have enough to make out a car load ship them themselves direct to the eastern markets. Last week Messrs. J. C. Putnam and Arthur McArthur shipped a car load of hogs, each, and this week E. F. Welch, Florence Cummings and H. Williams a car load each to Chicago.

—John Winans and E. M. Hyzer, occupied the pulpit in the M. E. church on this bright last Friday evening. They took for their text, The political outlook of 1884; according to their preaching it was a dubious outlook for the republican party.

—Mr. B. F. Danwidde and W. Lane spoke in this village on Wednesday evening of this week.

BREVETS.

—Wisconsin Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F. occupy Odd Fellows hall this evening.

—Badger Council, Royal Arcanum, assembled in their hall this evening—Lappin's block.

—Last evening Marshal Hogan arrested a trio of "patch" roughs, charged with stealing a keg of beer from a farmer's wagon. They are having a hearing this afternoon in the municipal court.

—The republicans should not forget to rally at Lappin's music hall to-morrow evening, and hear the eloquent Irish orator, John Toohy, of Milwaukee, and P. J. Clawson, of Green county. Good music will be in attendance. Turn out every body.

—The democrats are making all necessary arrangements to take a large delegation to Madison on Saturday evening to participate in the democratic demonstration. They have engaged the Bower City and Catholic Corset bands, and a special train of cars.

—There will be five political meetings held in Rock county this evening, to be addressed at Hanover by O. H. Fethers, Esq.; at Afton by Captain Pliny Norcross, and E. H. Blanchard; at Fairbairn by E. F. Danwidde and Wilson Lane; at Oakesville by J. C. Bartholm and N. Smith.

—An enthusiastic democrat in the town of Janesville remarked to a republican neighbor with whom he was discussing politics a few days ago: "Any Irishman that will vote for Blaine ought to have his throat cut from ear to ear, and I would like to stand by and see it done." The affection of the democracy for the Irish race is altogether too demonstrative.

—There was a very large and enthusiastic republican meeting, in Footville, last evening, to listen to an able and eloquent address by Captain Pliny Norcross, of this city. The republicans of Footville are very enthusiastic, and will give a full vote for the republican ticket on Tuesday. Senator Lord was announced as one of the speakers, but was unable to fill the appointment.

—The home of Mrs. Silas Hayner, of the first ward, was the scene of a pleasant gathering last evening, the occasion being the celebration of the seventy-ninth birthday of Mr. Adam Hayner. The company was composed entirely of old friends and neighbors of Mr. Hayner's and the evening was pleasantly spent in recounting reminiscences of old times. A bountiful supper served in a manner for which the hostess has an enviable reputation, was not the least attractive feature of the evening.

—The question is frequently asked "what makes them so high when wheat is so low?" The only satisfactory answer that we have been able to reach after a good deal of investigation, is, that the price of wheat has nothing to do with the price of flour. It costs just as much to run water over a wheel this year as it did last, the wear and tear on the mill is equally as great. Taxes, insurance, labor and everything about the place are just as high. There isn't very much wheat in flour anyway, not enough to affect the price of the article one way or the other.

—Mr. John Toohy, the great Irish American orator, of Bay View, will deliver an address in Lappin's music hall on to-morrow evening at 7:30 p. m. Mr. Toohy has been a working man, knows their wants, feels for them as a philanthropist should, and for that reason he casts aside the banner of England, Cleveland and free trade, and rallies beneath the pure American standard of Blaine, Logan and a protective tariff. For fourteen years of his life he labored as an iron worker in Bay View, mastering the various departments of a rolling mill until he became a recognized authority in such matters. Hear him by all means.

PERSONAL.
 —Mr. Nate P. Bailey, of Cedar Rapids Iowa, and wife are in the city on a brief visit. Since Mr. Bailey went to Cedar Rapids nine years ago, he has been strikingly successful in the drug business.

—Mrs. A. K. Sheldon has gone to New York, where she will remain a few weeks visiting relatives and friends, intending to stop at Oberlin, Ohio, to visit her daughter, Miss Fanny Sheldon, who is attending college at that place.

Mary Cummins' Faith Rewarded.
 Mary Cummins, an Irish girl, with Mr. Edward Hopper, No. 1235 Spruce streets, has a considerable fortune. A hard working domestic—she has $15,000. She communicated to a reporter that months ago, she heard of the Louisiana State Lottery, and decided on an investment. Her belief in its strictly honest principles were not shaken when she drew a blank for four times subsequent, nor did she fail to invest monthly, by mail, $1.00 with M. A. Dapkin, Washington, D. C. She has just been notified that the ticket, one-511th of which of which she holds, No. 70,465, has drawn the $75,000 prize.—Philadelphia (Phila) News, Sept. 29.

THE CLINTON RALLY.

Grand Illumination and Torch Light Procession Last Evening.

The Little Village Alive with Republican Enthusiasm.

The republican demonstration in the village of Clinton last evening was a grand success. A special train, consisting of five coaches and a baggage car, left this city at seven o'clock last evening, well loaded with companies A and B Blaine and Logan Invincibles, and others, bound for Clinton, to take part in the republican demonstration. The run to Clinton was made in good time, and it seemed the whole village had put on holiday attire and turned out to welcome visitors and give the demonstration a boom. The business places and the residences, with very few exceptions, were brilliantly illuminated with Chinese lanterns, and the scene in the street was simply grand. The procession was formed with the Clinton, Bait, Shuron and Janesville marching clubs, and a company of some eighty young ladies, carrying brooms and Chinese lanterns, and red, white and blue ribbons worn as a badge, leading the column. About 600 torches were in the line. The procession was a very demonstrative one, and was heartily cheered as it moved through the streets. The fire of torches was not inconsiderable and the torch bearers were well pleased with the success of the turn out.

At the conclusion of the parade, roasting republican speeches were made by Hon. Edwin Coleman, of Fond du Lac, Hon. N. W. Houghton, of Oshkosh. The Janesville club arrived home shortly after ten o'clock, much pleased with the trip. The Bower City band accompanied the Janesville party and added much to the enthusiasm by their excellent music.

A party of "patch" roughs went down on the special train, and on the return trip they took advantage of the absence of the party having the banner in charge, and made a wreck of it. The roughs are well known and will be made to pay dearly for their cowardly actions. Aside from this nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the excursion to Clinton, which will be put down by the Janesville delegation as one of the most pleasant of the campaign.

Letter to a Friend.
 Compared with Reason's Caprice Plaster, all other remedies are unsatisfactory. Price 25 cents.

Seven years of continuous suffering has rendered Mr. Wm. S. Fleming, of well-known hospital, at Appleton, unable to resume his usual life. For seven years I have suffered with rheumatism, and for four months I was confined to the house. Five weeks of this time I was helpless. I was recommended to use Dr. Wm. S. Fleming's, and the best of what might be a longer narrative is, I am entirely well and about my business after using two bottles.

The McKee-Appleton Wedding at Aurora.
 The Cincinnati Enquirer, of October 28th, contains the following account of the marriage of Mr. W. D. McKee, of this city, and Miss Grace Appleton, of Aurora, which will be read with interest by the readers of the Gazette:

"St. Mark's church, Aurora, Indiana, was the scene of a brilliant event last evening yesterday afternoon, when William D. McKee, of Janesville, Wisconsin, and Miss Grace Appleton, of Aurora, were united in marriage in the presence of a large number of guests prominent in society in Aurora and elsewhere. The groom is a prosperous young business man of Janesville, and the bride is the daughter of Mr. Frederick G. Appleton, of the well-known and aristocratic family of that name of Philadelphia. Miss Appleton is noted for her beauty, and since her debut in society has been a great favorite. The church was beautifully decorated with plants and flowers, and presented a pretty scene. The following named gentlemen of Aurora were the ushers: J. W. Gibson, J. C. Wymond, W. W. Howe, and H. J. Smith, Jr.

The ceremony was pronounced by the Rev. Dr. Appleton, of Philadelphia, uncle of the bride, assisted by Rev. T. W. MacLean, of Ypsilanti, Michigan, brother-in-law of the bride. The bride was escorted by her father, and the groom by Mr. Wm. S. Fleming, of Appleton. The dress was of white satin, with court train. Front of Pompadour lace and long tulle veil, with a half wreath of lilies of the valley.

The groom's present was a magnificent diamond pin, while the presents from the friends were numerous and elegant.

After the ceremony at the church an elegant reception was held at the residence of the bride's father, on Fifth street. The young couple will take an extended wedding tour, and then take up their residence in Janesville, Wis.

The Weather.
 At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 33 degrees above zero. Clear, with south wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 55 degrees above zero. Cloudy with south wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 49 and 52 degrees above zero.

Successfully Closed.
 The opening of the bazaar, under the auspices of the Sisters of Mercy of St. Joseph's convent, at the Guards' armory, last evening, was such as to give promise of its successful continuance. The different tables were handsomely decorated, and filled with articles of various designs; the fancy work is especially fine, and will bear the closest inspection. Among the attractions there is something to particularly please everybody—finely dressed dolls for the little ones, and "tidings of comfort and joy" for the big ones. The bazaar will continue until November 8th, during which time it will be opened afternoon and evenings. The public is cordially invited to call and see for themselves. Admission only ten cents.

Municipal Court.
 Wm. Ford was before the municipal court to-day charged with the larceny of a watch belonging to Edward P. Webb, of Lima, of the value of five dollars. The defendant pled guilty and was sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail at hard labor sixty days.

Complaint was made against four young men residing in that suburban portion of the city known as the "patch," charging them with stealing a keg of beer from a farmer's wagon, and appropriating the contents thereof to their own use. The officers succeeded in capturing the entire quartet, and on being arraigned this afternoon all pleaded guilty to the charge. The principal offender was sentenced to hard labor in the county

"GRAND RALLY."

In the Dry Goods Trade—The New York Saving Store to the Front.

In these times of aseason and excitement, political and otherwise, we find it necessary to go a little out of the usual routine of business, in order to get our full share of public attention. Accordingly, we shall commence on Tuesday, October 23rd, a sacrifice sale of millinery and fancy goods, which we propose shall eclipse any effort of the kind ever attempted in this city. The sale will continue for one week only and will include our entire stock of fresh and seasonable goods. To those who have been benefited by any of our previous sales, we need say but little to secure their attendance, but for the enlightenment of the few who do not know what one of our sales implies, we beg to submit the following "bill of fare," which, however, is merely a hint of the tremendous quantities we shall offer. We shall put forth our greatest efforts in the millinery department. Also in need of full millinery should make a careful study and comparison of the following: Fine felt hats, latest shapes and colors 60c, actual value $1.00; best French felt 75c, the value $1.25. An assorted lot of ladies' and childrens hats, all desirable styles at 25 cents; another assortment at 50 cents for the choice; ostrich tips, per bunch of three, 25 cents, 50 cents, 65 cents, and $1.00, guaranteed to be fully one-third below other store prices. Also seasonal values in ostrich plumes, fancy feathers, birds, pampans, etc. We shall offer about one hundred trimmed hats at prices barely covering the cost of production. No lady need deny herself a new hat or bonnet when she can thus be supplied at a merely nominal expense. All are now interested in the question of winter underwear. Blouse, note the following: Two cases of ladies' morning underwear to be sold at 35 cents. These are the regular 50 cent quality and are undoubtedly the greatest bargain ever offered. They should be seen to be appreciated. Our goods' all wool and underwear at 97 cents is equal to any goods sold elsewhere at $1.25. Our marine underwear for children at 15 cents up, is not trash, but excellent serviceable goods. We also sell every new grade of goods, all wool scarlet underwear at 57 cents. We cannot quote prices on our wool hosiery, our stock being too extensive. We will only suggest that this will be an excellent opportunity to purchase their winter supply for the entire family. The above remarks will apply equally as well to gloves. Do not fail to see the kid gloves, opera gloves, 3 or 4 buttons at 60 cents.

We shall offer some unprecedented bargains in household goods—we mention—heavy upholstered table linen at 15 cents; Turk, red, ditto, fast colors at 35 cents; fine damask napkins at 98 cents; $1.25, 1.50, 2.00, all unusual values, towels correspondingly low, good bedspread, colored borders at 40 cents; Jersey jackets at prices to choose; a big lot of knit bonnets at 25 cents, worth double, better grades in variety, also an immense assortment of leggings, stockings, mitts, etc., 10 cents per pair; all silk ribbons as follows: 5, 8, 7, 10, 9, 12 and 17 cents; silk white ribbons 10 cents per yard, fancy ribbons below cost.

Unspace and your patience will not admit of further enumeration, but we ask your attendance at this great sale, with the assurance that we shall amply fulfill all obligations here undertaken.

The sale will continue but one week and we cannot duplicate the above values after Nov. 4th.

We shall present each customer purchasing goods to the amount of one dollar, with a Blaine or Cleveland pin, nicely plated, such as are usually sold at 25 cents. Respectfully,

THE NEW YORK SAVING STORE.
